

The Archives department at the Mike Kelley Foundation for the Arts invites SCA members to a site visit on Wednesday, April 17th at 4:00 p.m. The Foundation is situated in Highland Park, Los Angeles, on the site of the artist's former home and two of his studios. This is a unique opportunity for archivists to visit our research center, which is closed to the public while the collections are being processed. Due to limited capacity, this tour requires advance registration and will only be open to 15 attendees. Register here: <https://forms.gle/XEHfhLupgMaAPPx8>

For those of you unable to attend the tour, there will be an additional opportunity to network at The Hermosillo in Highland Park (5125 York Blvd, Los Angeles, California 90042) where all are welcome to attend a no-host happy hour around 5:30 p.m.

Mike Kelley (1954-2012) is widely considered to be one of the most influential artists of our time. Irreverent but deeply informed, topical yet visionary, Kelley worked in a startling array of genres and styles, including performance, installation, drawing, painting, video, photography, sound works, text, and sculpture. Established by Kelley in 2007, the Foundation seeks to further Kelley's philanthropic work and to preserve the artist's legacy through educational initiatives including exhibitions, publications and the preservation and care of the Foundation's art collections and archives.
